Dear Editor,

My sister and I have made a hobby of collecting postcards. We have collected nearly seventy up to now from all parts of the world. If this letter is printed we'll buy a few more cards and the rest of the prize-money will go towards our holiday.
JOANNE RYAN, Cobham.

Wonder if the cash will stretch far enough for you to send me a card while you're away? . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I am getting very excited about going to America this year to meet my penfriend, for the very first time. Both our families have become great friends since we began writing to each other. My penfriend and her family live in a 60ft trailer in Hudson, New York State, and she has promised to take us to visit lots of interesting places during our stay out there.

When I get back home I will write to you again, telling you all about it.
NICOLA PRIOR, Keynsham.

Lucky ol' you, Nicola. I look forward to hearing from you again . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

My sister and I live in Taiwan, which is an island off the coast of China. Our parents are missionaries, and we've lived here for nine months. When we lived in Wales we never read WHOOPEE!, but when we moved out here our cousin sent us a few copies, and we both agree we've never read a better comic.
SARA and GWENNO TUDOR, Taiwan.

Dear Editor,

You asked recently if any famous person lived near any WHOOPEE! readers. Well, I have discovered that Mike Bernard, the Everton defender lives just up the road from us. Please could you print a picture of him?
DAVID WARD, Wirral.

No sooner said than done, David . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I like your comic very much, and I'm writing on behalf of my brother. He is six years old and for his next birthday he will get a new bike. He goes to Cheam Common Infants school and I help him to read your comic. His name is Khalid, and here is a picture of him.
SMEENA SIDDIQUI, Worcester Park.

I'm sure he'll be thrilled when he sees this, Smeena . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

Recently I received a home movie-making outfit for my birthday. In it there is a Super 8mm electric drive camera. A Super 8 mm automatic projector and lots of accessories such as cleaning equipment and camera carrying case and strap. I also have some ready-to-show, 50ft mini feature films.

COLIN MAGEE, Owton Manor.

I had a movie camera once. Well, that's not quite true, it was move of a 'move it' camera really. It was just an ordinary camera that I somehow always managed to move just as I was taking a photograph, so they always came out blurred . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I am writing to tell you about my hobby which is horses. I have over 100 newspaper cuttings, and 200 colour pictures of horses. I also have 3 framed pictures, 4 posters, 6 tablemats, 1 handkerchief , and 4 medals. Can anyone beat that?

MAXINE NEWPORT, Birmingham.

Well, you other readers, Maxine's 'riding' high with her record at the moment. Can anyone beat it . . ? . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I am a great fan of WHOOPEE!, which I buy every Saturday. I like it not only because of the very funny comic strips, but because there are so many things readers can take part in. Like writing letters, sending in jokes, Knock-Knocks, Wotsits, World-Wide Weirdies and suggestions for people to stay at Scream Inn. WHOOPEE! really is value for money.

DAVID GILL, Wordsley.

Ah, gee, David. You're making me and my staff blush saying things like that. Mind you, they're quite true (boast) . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I have written a poem about WHOOPEE!, and I'd be very pleased if you could print it for me.

W is for WHOOPEE! the best comic money can buy,
H is for happiness, with laughter you'll cry.
O is for the offers, so cheap yet so good,
O is for the office staff who make it as they should,
P is for the people who have a lot of fun,
E is for the eerie stories, that make you want to run,
E is the end of the comic, and then you will fret,
But don't worry, for next week, another one you can get.

NICOLA EVAN, Pembroke.

Praise will get you everywhere, what a marvellous rhyme,
And to write it must have taken you, a great deal of time,
Many thanks Nicola, you're telling no lies,
And on it's way to you is a one pound prize . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

My dad used to be a professional wrestler, and his uncle wrestled in the 1932 Olympics in Amsterdam. He was also coach to the British wrestling team in the 1936 Olympics in Berlin. If this letter is printed, the money will go towards buying a book on wrestling.

BILLY ANGUS, Middlesbrough.

A wrestling family, eh? Gulp! Don't think I'd care to upset you, so there's a £1 postal order on its way right now . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I'd like to tell you about my hobby, which is collecting mugs. They are mostly commemorative mugs, including one to celebrate the end of the First World War. If you publish my letter I will use the £1 to go towards buying another mug.

JOHN LAWTON, Madely Heath.

I've started collecting mugs, too. So far I've only got one — Ossie. He's the biggest mug I know . . . Editor.

Huh! That's not funny . . . Ossie.

Just a reminder, pals...
